- 8 • The lighting plans were adjusted to maintain a twin-headed fixture along Lockett Road.
- 9 • The civil engineer on the project continues to make progress with permitting through 10 MSD, which will be required prior to the issuance of permits by the City.

11
12 Commissioner Mark Ahrens reported on behalf of the subcommittee that they were 13 pleased with the modifications. He mentioned that the immediate neighbor to the 14 north of the site had attended the subcommittee meeting, and she also was pleased
15 with the responsiveness and cooperation of the M1 team.

24
25 NEW BUSINESS

26 None

27
28 STATUS REPORT

29 Alderman Kleinschmidt explained that the most recent Board of Alderman meeting was 30 very brief, with only routine business/purchases, so there was little to report. He 31 summarized the candidate filings for the April 3 elections. All candidates are unopposed:

- 32 • Mayor-Mark Becker
- 33 • Alderman, Ward 1-John Pound
- 34 • Alderman, Ward 2-Dean Fitzpatrick
- 35 • Alderman, Ward 3-Patrick Barrett

36
37 COMMITTEE UPDATES

38 None

39
40 OTHER ITEMS

41 Mr. Meyer provided updates on several topics of interest:

- 1 • Building Official Joe Heitkamp will be retiring as of March 2nd. He has been with the City
2 for just over three years. The position has been advertised in an effort to find a
3 replacement.
- 4 • Circle 7 Ranch is tentatively scheduled to open March 7th.
- 5 • American Bank of Missouri has shown strong interest in the former Fifth/Third Bank Site,
6 and will likely be submitting for a CUP hearing at the March P&Z meeting. Chairman
7 Oeltjen confirmed with Mr. Meyer that no outside improvements are planned, other
8 than replacement of plants where needed, and installation of new signs. The interior
9 floorplan will be changed. Chairman Oeltjen suggested that the full P&Z should be able
10 to sufficiently discuss the project in one meeting, rather than referring to a 11 subcommittee.
- 12 • The space vacated by the Elephant Bar, located at the east side of West County Center,
13 has been leased to Copia Wine Bar within the past week. They have expressed interest
14 in expanding the patio area. Copia currently has a location on Washington Avenue, and 15 is also expanding into Clayton.

16
17 Chairman Oeltjen announced that he would not be able to attend the March 14 P&Z
18 meeting, as he will be out of town. Commissioners Mark Ahrens and Will Mura also 19 stated that they would be unavailable. Commissioner Anna Ahrens said she should be 20 able to chair the meeting, but would be returning to town on a flight that afternoon,
21 and could arrive late. Mr. Meyer said he would poll the commissioners in the upcoming 22 week to ensure a quorum can be achieved.

23
24 ADJOURNMENT

25
26 Commissioner Mark Ahrens moved to adjourn the meeting. Commissioner Anna Ahrens
27 seconded the Motion. Motion was approved by voice vote. The meeting was adjourned at
